Chair Christian Steele attended the NLC Congressional City Conference and reported that he attended workshops regarding the electoral process and learned the requirements to run for council. The workshop allowed attendees to create a platform to run for Mayor and allowed him to connect with other council members. He visited the Library of Congress, the Veterans Memorial Park, and toured the Capital. He challenged MYC to do combined projects with council throughout the year. A discussion and ideas were given by members to think about community needs and consider doing another free library, a food drive, or a seed box.

Emergency Operations Manager, Joe Laster described the roles of government, businesses, and citizens during an emergency or disaster. He educated MYC members about the "Outdoor Warning Siren System."
